

Pre-Session Release

Photography Session Date _____

I hereby instruct Zala Tunzi, hereafter the photographer, to make photographic images of myself nude for creative and artistic purposes. The photographer agrees, and I request that these images be treated as confidential material of a personal nature, and it will not be displayed or published in any manner, and will be released only to me or my designated persons.

I understand that images of myself created by the photographer which are not recognizable may be used with impunity, in any circumstance or context, with no remuneration, considerations, requests, or permissions required.

I hereby appoint the photographer to create artistic images of myself and to retain those images in digital format in his secure archives for at least two years, should I need to order prints of those images at a later date – unless I change my mind and instruct the photographer to destroy any or all images.

I hereby instruct that without a Full Release, no images containing my identifiable likeness, defined as those physical characteristics, marks, and features which would allow me to be identified as the subject of a photograph via casual comparison with the physical characteristics, marks and features available for scrutiny under normal social conditions may be used in a commercial context, or be put on display. It is agreed that these physical characteristics, marks and features shall not include those covered by my usual mode of dress, or those unable to be examined under the dominant social conditions. It is understood that identifiable likeness in a photograph cannot be defined by race, gender, height, build, hair colour or other generalities.

I hereby release the photographer from any claims for remuneration associated with any form of damage, foreseen or unforeseen, associated with the proper commercial or artistic use of any images of myself that would be defined as unrecognizable in the above clause, unless it can be shown that said use was maliciously caused, produced and published for the sole purpose of subjecting myself to conspicuous ridicule, scandal, reproach, scorn, and indignity.
